
An unknown Lady, circa 1785

SOLD

REF: 4684

Short Description

Wearing a low cut blue dress decorated with ribbons and slashed to reveal white underslip set in the original frame with garnet border and four large paste stones

This miniature with such a pretty border would have been designed to be worn as a piece of jewellery

More Information

Literature

The Comerford Collection: Portrait Miniatures, (Dublin, privately published, 2009) pp. 10, 47 (#193).

Exhibition

Comerford Collection at the Irish Architectural Archives in Dublin, in 2009