
An oil portrait of a Lady in large black head dress,
Spanish School, 17th Century

SOLD

REF: 4843

Short Description

oil on copper, set in the original silver frame with pierced spiral cresting

It has not been possible to identify the sitter with any certainty but the large jewelled necklace and brooch would indicate that the sitter was a lady of power and wealth. The costume she wears indicates she might be with child