

A young lady

SOLD

REF: 2587

Short Description

a lilac coloured dress with frilled with fichu, landscape background
Signed and dated on the reverse

Hurter the son of Johann Heinrich Hurter was probably born in London. He painted on enamel obtaining a prize in 1782 from the Society of Arts. He exhibited at the Royal Academy from 1787 to 1789. Schidlof considers him to be an excellent painter

More Information

Year	1789
------	------