
King George III (1738-1820)

SOLD

REF: 4397

Short Description

in red coat with black collar and facings, wearing the breast-star of the Order of the Garter
Enamel on copper, gold fausse-montre frame with glazed reverse

The present miniature derives from a full-scale oil on canvas painting by Sir William Beechey in the British Royal Collection (RCIN 405422). A number of miniatures from the Beechey portrait were produced by artists such as Henry Bone R. A., William Grimaldi and Samuel Cotes, most of which depict the King in a black bicorne hat.

More Information

Year	Circa 1790
------	------------