
A portrait miniature of a young boy with his spaniel

£2,000

REF: 5323

Short Description

Wearing a jacket with white collar trimmed with lace, cuddling his spaniel set in a gilt-metal frame with reeded border. Painted in sepia tones. Dating from circa 1770 this is typical of some of the early work by Cosway which is in strong contrast to his later works where he uses an Antwerp blue for the background.
