Short Description

---

Lady Harriet wears a white dress and bonnet trimmed with lilac ribbon in gold frame fully engraved on the reverse with the sitter's details, erroneously engraved as being the work of Cosway (fitted red leather case)

Lady Harriet the daughter of co-heiress of George 2nd Marquess Townshend and 16th Lord de Ferrers (1782-1845). She married 11 Mar 1813 Edward Ferrers, of Baddesley Clinton, co. Warwick (d. 11 Aug 1830)>

The identification to the hand of Richard Cosway is unlikely to be accepted today. This portrait is delightful and extremely well executed
