

A Lady believed to be Henrietta Maria, English School, 17th Century

£800

REF: 5343

Short Description

Wearing a low cut white dress with lace collar, double stranded pearl choker painted in oil on tortoiseshell, set in a turned gilded wood frame

This is a most unusual example of a portrait being depicted onto tortoiseshell - perhaps it was originally intended as the lid of a snuff box

More Information

Condition

Good