
Portrait miniature of an officer called 'James' of the Westminster Volunteers

SOLD

REF: 2240

Height: 8.5 cm (3 1/4")

Short Description

James, a Westminster Volunteer (b.1773).

In gold frame with plaited hair reverse within blue glass border

The portrait is believed to have been executed circa 1797, when it was feared that Napoleon Bonaparte would invade England

More Information

Year	circa 1797, when it was feared that Napoleon Bonaparte would invade England
Medium	Watercolour ,