

---

A very beautiful portrait of an unknown Lady

£4,500

REF: 2690

---

Short Description

---

wearing plumed black hat, "Van Dyck" dress with black sleeves slashed to reveal pink

Provenance: Christie's, 28th March 1987

An English Private collector

Cosway, the leading miniature painter of the Regency era, painted the future King George IV in 1780 and was appointed Painter to the Prince of Wales in 1785—the only time this title was ever awarded. His subjects included the Prince's first wife, Maria Anne Fitzherbert, and various English and French aristocrats, including Madame du Barry, mistress of King Louis XV of France.

More Information

---

Year	circa 1790.
Medium	Watercolour on ivory,
Provenance	Christie's, 28th March 1987 An English Private collector