
A Enamel portrait of a Gentleman

£2,000

REF: 4498

Short Description

Wearing a gold edged grey coat and matching waistcoat, yellow waistcoat and white stock
Set in the original gold frame

Rouquet was a Swiss enameller who travelled to London circa 1722 where he became friends with Hogarth.

More Information

Year	Circa 1770
Medium	Enamel on copper
Literature	The Comerford Collection: Portrait Miniatures, (Dublin, privately published, 2009) pp. 6, 14 (#8)
Exhibition	Comerford Collection at the Irish Architectural Archives in Dublin, in 2009.
Condition	Good