
A pair of 18th century portrait miniatures of Mr and Mrs. John Chorley, painted on ivory

SOLD

REF: 5054

Height: 7.4 cm (2 1/1")

Short Description

He in dark brown coat she wears white bonnet and black dress set in gold frames, the reverses with apertures to reveal gold monogram JC on plaited hair

Mr. Chorley is buried in the Parish Church at Prescott, whose stained glass East Window was given by his daughter.

These are particularly strong portraits in excellent condition

More Information

Year	circa 1780.
Medium	watercolour on ivory.
Signed	Signed on the obverse with the initials TH,
Condition	Good