
A 17th century portrait miniature of Sir Henry Blount
(1602-1682) painted on vellum

£8,000

REF: 5094

Short Description

painted on vellum, in later gilt-metal frame the reverse erroneously inscribed Judge Jeffreys

There is another version of this portrait by Dixon in the Metropolitan Museum in New York, Accession Number:24.80.513.

Sir Henry travelled widely on the Continent and in Egypt, he was knighted in 1640. He sided with the Royalists in the Civil war. His Voyage to the Levant an account of an 11 month journey, of 6 thousand miles, went through 8 editions in English between 1636 and 1671.

More Information

Year	circa 1660.
Medium	gouache on vellum,
Signed	Signed on the reverse
Provenance	Lord Beauchamp, Madresfield Heckett Collection; Sotheby's, April 1978, lot 501
Literature	G.C. Williamson, History of Portrait Miniatures, 1904, vol. I, pl. LIII, fig 5. G. Reynolds, English Portrait Miniatures, 1988, p. 81
Exhibition	L'Exposition de la miniature a Bruxelles en 1912, 1913, p. 25
Condition	Good