

Late 18th century portrait miniature of a junior British officer of the 1st Regiment of Royal Scots Foot, painted on ivory

£3,000

REF: 5102

Height: 6.2 cm (2 1/2")

Short Description

Signed and dated 1794, wearing red uniform with gold epaulettes, the reverse with hair and initials JJ

Hardy was born in Jersey where he worked in addition to working in London. He exhibited at the R.A from 1794-1802 , from addresses in London, Weymouth and Bath, there are only a handful of miniatures recroded.

Provenance: Sotheby's November 17, 1975, lot 30
E. Grosvenor Paine, New Orleans
Sim C. Callon, Natchez, Mississippi

Literature: Foskett, Miniatures, Dictionary and Guide, discussed pl. 260, illustrated page 262, plat 64H

More Information

Year	circa 1790
Medium	watercolour on ivory,
Signed	Signed and dated 1794
Provenance	Sotheby's November 17, 1975, lot 30 E. Grosvenor Paine, New Orleans Sim C. Callon, Natchez, Mississippi
Literature	Foskett, Miniatures, Dictionary and Guide, discussed pl. 260, illustrated page 262, plat 64H
Condition	minor scratches t the glass