

A miniature portrait of Eleanor Palmer self portrait with her daughters, watercolour on ivoryine

£1,000

REF: 5167

Short Description

Inscribed on the reverse Mrs. Eleanor Palmer, RMS (scratched out) /The Lymes, Priory Road, Bowden/ 'Winnie' daughter of Dr. Surrige (the latter four words scratched out) £15.15.0

Mrs. Palmer was born in Bedford and died in Surrey. Her father was Dr. Henry Wilson Sharpin. She studied at the Slade School. She married Frederick Charles Palmer, a successful Insurance Broker. She lived in Bedford 1887-1917, 2 Groby Place, Altrincham, Cheshire(1902) and The Lymes, priory Road, Bowdon, Cheshire in 1920. She painted a miniatures for Queen Mary's Dolls House. She exhibited 1887-1921 at the Royal Academy, Society of Miniatures, and the Royal Miniature Society

Her sitters included the Duchess of Westminster and the artist's daughter - the present portrait. This miniature is mentioned in Daphne Foskett Dictionary of Miniature Painters, Vol 1 p. 434.

More Information

Year	circa 1920
Medium	Watercolour on Ivorine,
Literature	This miniature is mentioned in Daphne Foskett Dictionary of Miniature Painters, Vol. 1 p. 434.
Condition	good